competition of the year. In 2022 Nolan would like to build on that and compete in more international competitions and become a brand ambassador for Fuji sports. Hopefully this will help take Nolan to the next level and help him achieve his future aspirations of becoming an Olympic judoka for the USA team and World Champion in IBJJF. But for now, Nolan will continue to focus on pushing himself and being the best he can be in Brazilian Jiu jitsu and Judo.

Hi my name is Elynn, I live in the Netherlands and I am 6 years old. I become 7 years old in March 2022. I started judo when I was 4 years old and Brazilian Jiu Jitsu when I was 5 years old. Recently I received my BJJ grey belt under Carlson Gracie Amsterdam and I am so proud of it. BJJ gives me fun, learn new skills every day, improve my coordination and get a great workout. Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu is "cool" !!! What we need in the Netherlands is more BJJ schools and more BJJ tournaments for extra fun ! Forget princess I want to be a black belt !!!

competitions, Modern Flow, Nolan won all 3 of his matches by arm bar submissions; the fastest being in 22 seconds and making this his signature move, the "GhostRyder." In just over a year, Nolan's dedication to the sport earned him a yellow belt. Nolan's commitment to the craft has garnered him many accomplishments. He finished #1 in the Elite Federation of Grapplers, #1 in the state of Michigan and #4 overall in the country in the Fuji BJJ series for youth intermediate Gi.

During his time in Jiu jitsu, Nolan has been aided by many individuals that sponsored him to compete nationally. Nolan finished with a Bronze in his first international competition in November 2021 at the IBJJF Jiu jitsu Con kids that saw over 900 competitors and was the second largest kids' yet firm teaching style allows him to connect with his students in a way that helps them become successful and highly competitive.

Nolan's journey started at the age of 7. From the first class you could see the sparkle in his eyes and his thirst for competition. His competitive nature came out and he begged to go to a BJJ competition after his first full week in class. Even though he didn't compete then, he made it to the next competition and never looked back. Competition brought out a different side of Nolan. His enthusiasm and commitment to the sport had him moving through the ranks and earning his grey belt in a mere 5 months.

During this time, Nolan racked up multiple gold medals and trophies. At one of these Nolan "GhostRyder" Gawrelak is a 10-year-old yellow belt who has been training in Brazilian Jiu jitsu and Judo for 3 years. Nolan currently trains at Allegiance Gym/ Cascão BJJ in Michigan. Nolan has always been an upbeat and active child who is interested in the police and the military. Nolan's outgoing personality would help in making friends every where he went. His "GhostRyder" nickname came from a special operations veteran he befriended. They would send pictures and care packages to each other throughout the years.

In 2019 Nolan became interested in wrestling. After a few weeks of research, we found Allegiance Gym which is owned by Chris Wisniewski. Allegiance started out in a 2-stall garage off the side of his used car lot in Warren, Michigan. Chris' vision of opening the gym was not only to help himself get healthy but help the community get physically and mentally healthy.
